

JUSTICE AT LAST

BOARD OF DIRECTOR JOB DESCRIPTION

About Justice At Last

Justice At Last is the only nonprofit law firm in the San Francisco Bay Area exclusively serving the legal needs of survivors of human trafficking. We provide clients with free legal services regardless of their age, sex, gender identity, abilities and equity needs, nationality or type of trafficking. We emphasize a holistic approach that empowers survivors to achieve justice on their own terms.

Board of Director

We are in need of volunteers willing to serve Justice At Last as a Board of Director. Join us and have the opportunity to impact social justice and help enhance the lives of trafficked persons. We are expanding and diversifying our Board of Directors, with a goal of being inclusive. We are seeking candidates that are representative of the community we serve, have Board experience and or have a particular skill set, including finance, data analysis, fund raising, event planning and marketing expertise.

Location Requirement and Time Commitment

There is a requirement that the Board of Directors be residents within the San Francisco Bay Area. Board of Director terms are 3 years and there are 6 remote meetings per year, typically the 1st Saturday morning of every odd month.

Responsibilities

- Be an ambassador on behalf of Justice At Last and know, understand and support the organization's mission:
 - To empower those who have been labor trafficked and commercially sexually exploited by providing access to free comprehensive legal services, advocacy and specialized trainings to help transform survivors' lives.
- Attend at least 75% of the board & committee meetings and special events each year and be actively engaged in helping meet the needs of the organization.
Make an annual financial contribution at a level that is personally meaningful.
Actively participate in one or more fundraising activities each year.
- Stay current with all the facts upon which board members must base their collective opinions and decisions, including financial responsibilities.

Please email your resume and cover letter to opportunities@justiceatlast.org for consideration.
