

JUSTICE AT LAST

Volunteer Social Justice Ambassador

ABOUT JUSTICE AT LAST

We are the only independent nonprofit law firm in the San Francisco Bay Area exclusively serving the legal needs of survivors, regardless of their age, gender identity, nationality or type of trafficking. Justice At Last provides free legal representation that emphasizes dignity and is survivor-centered, culturally sensitive, trauma informed, and rights-based. Our specialization includes assertion of crime victims' rights, clearing criminal records, family law, immigration relief and identity theft recovery. While we have satellite offices in the Bay Area, our practice is mobile and we usually travel to where the client is already receiving services to save them time, money and to ensure they are in a space that feels safe and trusted.

ABOUT THE JOB

A Volunteer Social Justice Ambassador helps create awareness about human trafficking, the legal obstacles trafficked persons often face, and the forms of legal relief we help our clients obtain. Volunteer Social Justice Ambassadors represent Justice At Last at networking, fundraising and tabling events, as well as help promote the work we do through social media and blog posts. It's a great opportunity to get involved in the anti-trafficking movement and help support trafficked persons seek justice on their own terms.

QUALIFICATIONS:

APPLICATION MATERIALS:

Justice At Last is strongly committed to diversity and encourages applications from people who can contribute to our diversity, especially survivors of human trafficking.
